5 PARTNERS INTELLIGENCE PORTAL (PIP)

G Sergeant, Police Scotland gave a presentation on the expansion of Police Scotland's Partners Intelligence Portal (PIP).

He advised that the PIP was a secure and confidential electronic system, developed by the Police Service to enable partner agencies to share important information. The portal provided partners with the means to securely and discreetly submit key information, whilst maintaining safeguards which protected the source of the information.

This process was aimed at developing information around the threat, risk and harm posed by perpetrators and locations and would provide invaluable opportunities to target those who posed risk and protect those at risk of harm

He indicated he was happy to engage with any of the local organisation and they would receive training, access and any guidance required in the use of the portal.

DECIDED: That the presentation be noted.

6 UPDATE ON THE INQUIRY INTO COMMUNITY PLANNING

There was submitted a report by S Graham, Partnerships Manager relative to an update on the inquiry into Community Planning by the Scottish Government.

The report advised that the Scottish Parliament approved the Community Empowerment Scotland Act (2015) as a key part of legislation to take forward community empowerment and community planning in Scotland.

As part of the Inquiry, the Scottish Parliament discussed with Third Sector Interfaces, their experience of involvement in community planning and other aspects of the Act. The Scottish Parliament was interested in the experience of Engage Renfrewshire and the Third Sector in general and, as a result, members of the Local Government and Housing Committee and Scottish Parliament Officers visited Renfrewshire on 6 February 2023 to hear first-hand about this engagement. The Scottish Parliament also issued a call for views on community planning in late 2022 through surveys and witness sessions in the Parliament. Renfrewshire Community Planning Partnership's response to the survey was attached to the report as an appendix.

DECIDED:

- (a) That the visit of members of the Scottish Parliament Local Government and Housing Committee to Renfrewshire to discuss local Third Sector experience of community planning on 6 February 2023 be noted;
- (b) That the positive impression of work in Renfrewshire recorded by Scottish Parliament members following the meeting be noted; and
- (c) That the response of Renfrewshire Community Planning Partnership to the call for views from the Scottish Parliament be noted.
