Bi-Level and Tri-Level Courses

Report by
Joint Secretary (Teachers' Side)

Background

There is an increasing practice in Renfrewshire secondary schools of teachers being timetabled to teach Bi-Level and Tri-Level SQA courses. This has taken place without any consultation and discussion around the pedagogical merits of such a practice and the resource and workload implications involved.

Action

The Teachers' Side requests that the Management Side advises Headteachers to include the timetabling of Bi-Level and Tri-Level Courses as part of ongoing discussions around reducing teacher workload.
