(Please use a separate sheet if required)	2.3 2.9	To produce a free newsletter covering a wide variety of interest to residents of Lochwinnoch and surrounding areas. We have in place in Trust's name a Trust deed, a business bank account and insurance. The whole newsletter can be found on Lochwinnoch Village Website. Our editor is the webmaster. Chatterbox also has a Favebook page. The original purpose in 1993 was produced by two volunteers known as Lochwinnoch publicity group for LCC. Over the last six years with the present team it has grown to be a publication of 20 pages, 4 in colour, all down to its popularity and success. We saw the need for the inclusion of colour page because of the mant photographs coming in each month. We make every effort to make Chatterbox as interesting as possible. It will continiue to improve. A wide variety of content submitted by the many village organisations, businesses, clubs and local councillors. Each month there is input from RSPB, CMRP, Castle Semple Loch, St Vincent's Hospice, Library, Lochbarr Leisure, school etc. Village social and economic history. We are establishing an annual Journalism Award. A prize for the best piece of journalistic writing submitted by a school student. A reward to encourage aspiring journalists. Continued success. Chatterbox is eagerly anticipated each month. Each team member has a specific job, however we are always on the lookout for new ideas and items to include. Centre pages - one dedicated to regular days and times for what's on in clubs and organisations weekly. The other to what events are coming up that month.
