(Please use a separate sheet if required)	2.3 2.9	The purpose of this project is to provide a therapeutic activity which is truly meaningful and which will engender a feeling of self worth to people who are slowly losing sight of themselves and the world as it once was. The need for an art project was identified through service user participation strategy meetings with people themselves asking for ways to develop their own skills. As a result of this request day centre management sourced and identified art tutors who could carry this forward adhering to all health and safety concerns etc. The proposed art project - Kaleidoscope - will free the minds of those participating. Giving an outlet of free expression where words are not required and rules do not exist. The classes will be held in the day centre, Walkinshaw Street, Johnstone. 3x fortnightly 2 tutors:- Jane McTaggart/Ian Richardson of "White Cart Art" have been identified by day care staff as being most suitable in taking this project forward. Fully inclusive of all art materials needed for term. It is anticipated that everyone will enjoy the opportunity to integrate with peers in a friendly, supportive and creative environment thus stimulating mind, body and spirit.
