4 NHSGGC Specialist Children's Services Hosting Arrangements

The Chief Officer submitted a report relative to progress on the implementation of a single service structure for Specialist Children's Services (SCS) that would be hosted centrally within East Dunbartonshire Health and Social Care Partnership, on behalf of NHSGGC.

A briefing setting out the pre-established rationale for realignment of Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services and Specialist Children's Services formed Appendix 1 to the report and provided an opportunity to update members on the planning, engagement and initial process for the creation of a single management arrangement for SCS with a view to a fuller report being submitted to IJBs within NHSGGC in March 2023 for approval of the details of transition.

Following discussion around the decision taken to host SCS centrally, it was proposed that the update report being brought back to the March meeting include detail on the basis and timeline for this decision being taken by the health board and also provide clarity on where responsibility and accountability would lie due to this change to delegated services. This was agreed unanimously.

DECIDED:

- (a) That the content of the briefing as outlined within Appendix 1 be noted;
- (b) That it be noted that an update report would be brought back to the March meeting setting out the details of the transitional arrangements; and

The Chief Officer submitted a report providing an update on key developments and operational activity since the last meeting of the IJB held on 25 November 2022 and additional policy developments which would be built into future workplans, strategies and action plans.

The report intimated that the report had been developed during an ongoing period of change and uncertainty, particularly with the financial circumstances faced by the IJB, and provided an update on the Scottish Government Budget 2023/24 setting out the budget highlights and potential challenges in the next financial year.

6 Financial Report 1 April to 30 November 2022

The Chief Finance Officer submitted a report relative to the revenue budget position at 30 November 2022 and the projected year-end position for the year ended 31 March 2023.

The report referred to the development session held on 12 August 2022 where the Chief Finance Officer highlighted the current volatility of the IJB's budget due to the current economic and cost of living crisis and the likelihood that this would have a negative impact on projections through the financial year. It was noted that given the current fluid discussions on pay negotiations it was not yet clear what the final impact would be on the overall budget position for 2022/23 or what funding would be passed through to the IJB to meet these increased costs. Further clarity on budget settlements was expected in the coming months and further detail would be provided to the IJB when it sets its budget in March 2023.

The report intimated that, as highlighted at the IJB meeting held on 16 September 2022, the continued delay in receiving a number of ring-fenced allocations from the Scottish Government in respect of specific Scottish Government priorities meant that it was not clear how the in-year budget would be impacted and what conditions would be attached to the funding when it was received, including whether it would be recurring or non-recurring.

The report advised that the IJB year to date position, including the impact of COVID-19 which was funded from the draw-down of COVID-19 earmarked reserves, was an underspend of £636,000 and the projected outturn for 2022/23 was an underspend of £919,000.

The report provided information on the key pressures; responding to the COVID-19 pandemic; Scottish Government funding 2022/23; other delegated services and reserves.

Appendices 1 to 4 of the report detailed the revenue budget position of the HSCP, adult social care, health, and Renfrewshire Council other delegated services; Appendices 5 and 6 to the report provided a reconciliation of the main budget adjustments applied this current financial year; Appendix 7 to the report detailed the Scottish Government funding streams and Appendix 8 to the report detailed the movement in ear marked reserves.

DECIDED:

- (a) That the in-year position at 30 November 2022 be noted;
- (b) That the projected year-end position for 2022/23 be noted; and
- (c) That the current estimated financial assessment of the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic for 2022/23 be noted.

7 Performance Management Mid-year Report 2022/23

The Head of Strategic Planning & Health Improvement submitted a report relative to the mid-year performance for the financial year 2022/23. The full scorecard updating all performance measures for the period April to September 2022 was appended to the report.

The report intimated that there were 51 performance indicators of which 40 had targets set against them. Performance status was assessed as either red, more than 10% variance from target; amber, within 10% variance of target; or green, on or exceeds target. At the mid-year point, the scorecard showed a relatively stable position compared to year end 2021/22. The status of the 40 indicators which had targets set against them included 10 red indicators, 12 amber indicators and 18 green indicators.

DECIDED: That the Performance Management Mid-year Report 2022/23 for Renfrewshire HSCP be approved.

8 Unscheduled Care Winter Update

Under reference to item 14 of the Minute of the meeting of the IJB, the Head of Health & Social Care submitted a report relative to developments in Urgent and Unscheduled (U&UC) care governance across NHS GGC and how HSCPs were delivering against U&UC priorities to minimise the impact of unscheduled care during winter.

The report intimated that in March 2022 all six IJBs approved a report on the Unscheduled Care Design and Delivery Plan for 2022/23 to 2024/25 which detailed how HSCPs would seek to operate in conjunction with acute sector colleagues to meet the unprecedented level of unscheduled care across NHS GGC and meet the continuing challenges of an ageing population with increasing complex care needs.

The report advised that the enduring and significant impacts of unscheduled care on NHS Scotland had led the Scottish Government to seek assurances from NHS boards and HSCPs aligned to eight specific themes, termed High Impact Change areas (HIC) and the report and appendix 1 to the report provided further detail.

The report noted that, as a result of Scottish Government requests for assurances around Unscheduled Care, the NHS board and HSCP Chief Officers had adapted the governance structure for Urgent and Unscheduled Care and the new governance structure was detailed in Appendix 2 to the report.

DECIDED:

(a) That the content of the report be noted; and

(b) That it be noted that a further report would be brought back to the IJB in summer 2023.

9 Date of Next Meeting

DECIDED: That it be noted that the next meeting of the IJB would be held remotely on MS Teams at 10.00 am on 31 March 2023.
